FLAG CAMPAIGN RESULTS GOOD

The Gettysburg Jaycees continue their "Put The Flag Out Front" campaign tonight in the eastern part of Gettysburg. One Jaycee contingent headed by Bing Albright will canvass north of Hanover St. A second group directed by Don Cordell will work south of Hanover St. A third group with John Riddle in charge will see people south of York St., east of Baltimore St. to the High School. Group four under Don Ueber will work west of Baltimore St. south of Middle St. to Breckenridge and west on West St.

Jaycee Don Becker expressed satisfaction with the drive to date. Tuesday night's rain interfered with the campaign in some areas but those not contacted will be canvassed either tonight or Thursday night. Becker said that there was a possibility the program might be continued on Friday evening if showers hamper the canvass tonight.

Tuesday evening the workers had help from a sound truck which broadcast marches and informed the public of the campaign. Becker noted that the "Jaycees were not working just to sell flags, but because, especially in Gettysburg, people ought to realize that flag displays on holidays are a mark of their own patriotism."

BESHORE URGES SUPPORT TO CUT HIGHWAY TOLL

Andrew S. Beshore, education and information supervisor for the state Bureau of Highway Safety, told the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club at its meeting Tuesday evening at the Shetter House:

"We gave willingly of our time and money to fight pollution, but for every child who dies from pollution, 19 are killed by autos. Last year when 28 children throughout the nation died from suffocation when they found abandoned ice boxes, the entire nation rose in horror to see that something was done to prevent any person from simply tossing an ice box on a dump without first removing the door. Yet during the same time 4,400 children between the ages of one and 15 were killed by autos and 8,200 young people between the ages of 15 and 24 were killed by cars, and no one thought anything of it."

"We, as a nation, sanction this slaughter, because we do nothing about it. We sanction this slaughter because we sanction the drivers who kill. We seem to be in sympathy with the drivers who kill the killers. Do you know of anyone who has ever reported the people who violate the traffic rules? And yet all of us have seen people violating the laws, taking chances, setting the stage for a killing. And we all know a great number of so-called big shots who say the police should tag the others but not them."

Praises Safety Campaign
Beshore complimented the local Kiwanis club for taking part in the current "slow down and save a life" campaign being conducted (Continued On Page 8)

STORM RUINS PARIS CRUSADE

PARIS (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham got some tough competition from the elements Monday night. A violent thunderstorm nearly drowned out his voice midway through the second meeting of his Paris crusade.

Some of the 6,000 persons gathered in the sprawling Velodrome d'Hiver sports arena for the service hurriedly shifted seats when the rain leaked through the roof at half a dozen points.

The attendance was about 2,500 less than at Sunday's opener in the five-day crusade. But the 37-year-old North Carolina minister said the audience was "much larger than I expected on Monday night."

"I'm glad the rain has come," he told the crowd. "I know you need rain in Paris and I was a farmer once, so I am thankful for the rain."

When he called for decisions for Christ, 356 persons moved forward. Sunday night there were 623.

Graham's sermons here are translated as he speaks by a French pastor standing beside him.

My eyes perceived in you the things . . . that others cannot see . . . for I behold a living dream . . . who lives alone for me . . . In you I see the little things . . . that count so very much . . . a gentle smile aglow with truth . . . that I can almost touch . . . perhaps only enchanted eyes . . . see what I've told you of . . . for nothing is impossible . . . when someone is in love.

$3 MILLION PAID FOR COUNTY MILK

Adams County's income from milk topped $3,075,500 during 1954. According to Pennsylvania's June Dairy Month Committee, the county's 11,500 cows produced a record 69,575,000 pounds of milk valued at $2,859,500. Another estimated $175,000 was paid to Adams County dairy plant employees.

"This sum points out the economic value of the dairy industry to Pennsylvania," said J. Collins McSparran, chairman of the State Dairy Month Committee. "Because our state is so industrialized, with steel and other industries gaining much more prominence, few Pennsylvanians realize the Commonwealth ranks third as a milk consuming state and fifth as a milk producing state even though it is only 33rd in area size."

McSparran, a Lancaster County dairy farmer and secretary of the State Grange, pointed out that one of every 25 people in the State depend on milk or milk products for their livelihood. He said that the annual income from milk exceeds "the $400,000,000 mark in payments to producers and dairy employees."

"Pennsylvania 43,000 dairy farm families received $285,023,000 for their 6,156,000,000 pounds of milk in 1954," McSparran said.

Season cream sauce with grated Parmesan or Romano cheese and serve over broiled or pan-fried chicken breasts for a company dish. The poultry may be fresh or frozen. The frozen breasts may be had in a pound package — enough for two or three servings. With the chicken and its sauce, serve rice mixed with butter and lots of finely chopped parsley and a big salad. Hot biscuits or rolls are a pleasant accompaniment, too.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Cattle Slain After Being Bitten By Dog: Four head of cattle had to be slain Monday afternoon when they developed rabies on the farm of Newton Orndorff, Berwick township, between Abbotstown and East Berlin, after being bitten three weeks ago by a mad dog. The orders to slay the cattle were given by Dr. George Muniz, state bureau of animal industry, after an investigation had been made by George A. Raffensperger, state field agent for the bureau.

The loss of the cattle, valued at $160, which will be paid by the state, climaxes two weeks of depredations upon cattle and sheep in the county by dogs, the total loss being 5 cattle, a dog and 16 sheep.

A long rifle shot fired by Preston Baumgardner, Liberty township, early Monday morning ended the career of terrorism that a police dog turned wolf had led for several months in that section. The dog during that time is believed to have been responsible for the death of sixteen sheep and the injury of two more on three farms in Liberty township.

A pack of dogs attacked a heifer on the farm of Charles Hershey, McKnightstown, last week and so badly injured the animal that it had to be slain. Raffensperger shot one of the dogs in the pack.

Latimore Couple Wed Here Sunday: Miss Zula A. Brough, daughter of Mrs. Amanda Brough, of Latimore and Frank L. Lerew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Lerew, of Latimore township, were united in marriage by the Rev. L. B. Hafer, pastor of the York Springs Lutheran Church, at his residence on Carlisle St., Gettysburg, Sunday evening.

College Board Refuses Plea To Admit Co-eds: Re-affirming action taken in 1923, the board of trustees of Gettysburg college today voted to exclude women students after this year. Co-eds now in college however will be allowed to graduate.

Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of the college, who acted as spokesman for the board, said the vote to exclude women students after the academic year now closing was 16 for and six against. Dr. Hanson said the board felt now, as it did seven years ago, that in the "best interests of the college and the Lutheran church co-eds should be excluded because they have always been without a dean and supervised dormitory facilities."

In 1923 the board voted to exclude co-eds after 1926, the vote at that time being 17 to 7. Before the meeting of the board in 1926 a campaign was waged to urge the trustees to rescind their previous action and co-education was extended until the academic year 1929-30.

Women students have been admitted to the battlefield school since 1885 and have attained high scholastic standards.

Thieves Break Into 2 York Street Apartments At Mid-day: Take $800: Jewelry valued in excess of $800 was stolen from two apartments on the fourth floor of the Sachs apartments building, York St., by a thief who ransacked the places between 11:20 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. Monday. The apartments entered were those occupied by Miss Mabel Grenoble and Angelo Camberis.

Miss Grenoble was the heavier loser. From a jewel case in a dresser drawer the robber took a diamond ring, valued at $500; a diamond bar pin, worth $150; a crescent pin set with pearls, a blood stone and a diamond ring and a gold signet ring. Mr. Camberis' loss amounted to about $40. He had a silver belt buckle, a fountain pen and some other small trinkets of jewelry stolen.

Stores Closing On Thursdays: Beginning Thursday, June 9, and continuing during the summer months, a group of Gettysburg merchants will close their places at noon, Thursday, in order to give their employees a half holiday.

THE GREATER JOY

George F. Baker for many years was looked upon as one of New York's wealthiest men. His bank paid dividends of 100 per cent annually. Yet Baker, the man, was little known, and he refused all attempts to write the story of his life. A statement got into circulation, however, that Baker had never been known to be philanthropic.

Not long after this statement was made Baker gave a million dollars to the American Red Cross, and this gift was repeated a year later. Since that time many have been the generous gifts from this man to many causes. Baker Library at Dartmouth involving a gift of some two million dollars, and Baker Field in New York City, to Columbia University, are but a few of his benefactions.

George F. Baker lived to be 91 and he stated to a friend that his happiest years had been those in which he had generously given money to institutions and to the public needs. He stated that these gifts yielded him his richest dividends. Many another has experienced the same. We keep most when we give most away!

Whenever I visit Dartmouth College, I go to that beautiful library that Baker made possible and I see youths all through that building absorbed in books, surrounded by treasures, from which they exact rich personal benefits. Every time I think to myself: "Here is an example of an investment that will never end!"

I look out the windows of my office to that great group of buildings known as Radio City. The Rockefeller built this famous group at the bottom of the depression to give men work. It is impossible to estimate all the joy and benefits that have been created by the elder John D. Rockefeller and his son, and the latter's sons. Their benefactions have been world-wide and I am certain that their greatest joy has been to keep giving!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Waste Of Noise" Protected, 1955, George Matthew Adams Service

TRUTHFUL FISHERMAN
The fish that got away was not
The biggest of its class,
And guess its weight I'd rather not.
I know it was a bass.
The minnow used for bait it took
And left to me an empty hook.

I don't expect to catch them all.
I tell no fishing lies.
I do not see a bass that's small
With magnifying eyes.
When I am fishing I refuse
To stretch the length of those I lose.

Sometimes I catch the legal few,
And many times I don't.
But later tell what is untrue
I absolutely won't.
No word deceitful will I say
About the fish that got away.

The Taneytown firemen also decided, at their meeting, to check on the cost of furnishing a room at the Warner Hospital, to see if it is within their means. The hospital is currently staging a building fund drive. Plans were made to march in the Firemen's Parade at New Windsor this evening, and in the Gettysburg parade on June 30.

It was reported that the firemen answered seven ambulance calls and three fire calls during May. Thirty-two members were present.

200 ALUMNI AND GUESTS ATTEND ANNUAL DINNER

More than 200 Taneytown High School Alumni and their guests gathered at the school to dine and dance Saturday evening. The attendance was the largest ever for the event. The group enjoyed a fried chicken banquet prepared and served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire Company, assisted by a number of high school girls who served as waitresses. Invocation was offered by Merritt Copenhaver.

The program opened with group singing led by David Reifsnider. President Robert Waddell, the toastmaster, introduced the other officers of the Alumni Association: David Reifsnider, vice president; Miss JoAnn Wolf, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Hartsock Koons, historian. The treasurer, Marlin Rittase, was unable to be present. President Waddell gave a short resume of the past year's activities, the plans for the coming year and made the announcement of the annual outing and wiener roast. The outing, which is always scheduled in July, will take place at Beverly Beach, near Annapolis, on Sunday, July 17. The wiener roast will be held in Taneytown Memorial Park Monday evening, August 15. It was pointed out that, due to the success of the projects and activities of the association last year, over $300 worth of gifts were presented to the Taneytown schools, including the auditorium public address system which was recently installed in the high school.

Principals Introduced
After expressing regret that Rev. Guy P. Bready and Samuel Jenness, who are honorary members of the association, could not be present Mr. Waddell introduced the elementary school principal, Frank Wagny, and Andrew Mason, the high school principal. Mr. Mason congratulated the group for its active program and thanked them for their contributions and help. He extended particular appreciation for the public address system.

Mr. Waddell then introduced Paul Hymiller, president of the reunion class of '45. He in turn introduced Mrs. Louella Sauble Harner and Mrs. Mildred Ingram Rittase who read from the class prophecy, telling what had been prophesied for each one present. These members then rose and told what they are doing now. Mrs. Doris Wildride Harner read their class poem.

Stanley Lutz of the class of 1930 was introduced and gave a talk on the strides that have been made in science and research in the last 25 years. Many things which were mentioned in their class prophecy and which seemed impossible at that time have come true or are conceived possible in the near future. The members of the class then introduced their husbands or wives and gave their present occupation and addresses.

27 Seniors There
Elwood Baumgardner, president of the class of '55, introduced the seven members of their class who were present and their guests. He also introduced one of their teachers, Mrs. George Fringer Birley. Following the program this class met in one of the classrooms and spent a social hour talking over old times, looking at their yearbook and pictures.

The class of '55, who were guests of the association, had 27 members. At exactly 9 o'clock the program finished and the group retired to the auditorium, where they enjoyed dancing to the music of Gordon Colston and his "Mets" and talked with old schoolmates until midnight.

Musial Recovers Batting Eye And Pounds Out Win For Cards; Braves Bounce Giants From 3rd

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Those St. Louis Cardinals may be only in fifth place, but with Stan Musial starting to hit again, things may be getting better any day now.

Stan's had his usual slow start so far, but he's perked up when the Cards needed him most. He's up to .317 as of today, moving up in a 13-game revival in which he's hit .375.

Last night, the Redbirds again were on the verge of slipping into seventh place. And voila! Musial smacked 3 for 5, drove in three runs and scored himself in a 5-4 triumph over the Phils.

That eased the Cardinals into a fifth-place tie with Cincinnati after the Redlegs had been blanked by the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers 4-0.

Brooklyn stayed eight games up as the runner-up Chicago Cubs came from behind with four runs in the sixth to beat Pittsburgh 4-3 while the resurrected Milwaukee Braves knocked New York's Giants out of third 13-4.

Tigers Whip Yankees
In the American, the New York Yankees remained 4½ games out from while losing to Detroit 4-3 in 12 innings. The Chicago White Sox—rained out in their game with Baltimore—slipped into second place .005 percentage points ahead of Cleveland as the Indians lost to Boston 9-5.

The only other AL action went to Washington, with the Senators weeping a two-night twinbill at Kansas City 3-2 and 7-3.

At Philadelphia, Musial's two-run double in the first chased starter Curt Simmons, and his triple in the eighth drove home the winning run off loser Murry Dickson. Harvey Haddix won his third with relief help from Frank Smith after giving up earlier two-run homers to Del Ennis and Jim Greengrass.

Braves Clobber Giants
Brooklyn missed hitting a home run for the first time in 13 games, but the Redlegs managed just five hits off Johnny Podres, who won his sixth.

Milwaukee clobbered the slumping Giants with six runs in the second that sent Johnny Antonelli to his seventh defeat. The Braves got five more in the ninth as Chet Nichols won No. 5 with help from Warren Spahn.

The Giants, now half a game back of the Braves, lost shortstop Al Dark for an indefinite period when X-rays revealed a pair of bone chips suffered when he was hit on the left hand by a pitched ball Sunday.

Five singles and an error pulled the Cubs from behind in the sixth at Pittsburgh to shorten the night for Max Surkont, Sherten Hillman, Hal Jeffcoat and Howie Pollet combined in relief to save Warren Hacker's sixth victory.

Robinson Clouts Homer
Fred Hatfield's homer off reliever Tom Sturdivant gave Ned Garver his first triumph over the Yankees in six years. Eddie Robinson smacked a two-run homer and Joe Collins a bases - empty clout for the Yanks.

Rookie Herb Score didn't survive the first inning against the Red Sox as Ted Williams hit a two-run double. But after Cleveland tied it at 3-all in their half of the frame to chase Mel Parnell, Boston got four runs in the fourth off loser Art Houtteman to win it for George Susce.

Three runs in the ninth—with Bill Wilson's three-base error letting the lead run score—broke up Alex Kellner's shutout and won for the Senators in the opener at Kansas City. Mickey McDermott gave 13 hits and walked six in the nightcap, but hung on for his fifth victory.

Carlos Paula, Washington outfielder, reaped acres and hit a sacrifice fly in the second game as rookie Art Ceccarelli attempted to give him an intentional walk.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only three games separated the first five clubs in the Eastern League today.

Allentown's Redbirds joined the wholesale chase by whipping Reading twice last night, 3-2 and 6-3, to jump from fifth third.

Seventh-place Wilkes-Barre cut another half game off wobbling Williamsport's first-place margin, rapping the Grays, 9-3, for the third time in two nights.

Binghamton, whose home game with Elmira was washed out by rain, coasted into sole possession of the second spot, two lengths behind the Grays and a half game ahead of Allentown.

Schenectady, edged, 4-2, by host Albany, tied with Reading for fourth.

Ezzard Charles In TV Fight Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP) — Whether former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles is to figure any longer as a topflight fighter may be determined tonight when he meets Johnny Holman, Chicago, in a bout scheduled for 10 rounds.

The contest will be televised nationally (ABC) and will begin at 9 p.m. (EST) at Music Hall Sports Arena.

Holman scored a technical knock-out over Charles in the ninth round at Miami Beach, Fla., on April 27. Charles, although down in the first round, had come back and was ahead on points until Holman, a relative unknown, battered him into helplessness and the bout was stopped.

MOOSE DEFEAT TEXAS LUNCH TO TAKE LEAD

In a thrilling extra-inning ball game the G. L. Bream Yankees edged the Moose 2-1 on the Little League diamond Tuesday evening, to jump into first place by a half game ahead of the Rotary Tigers.

Roger Ecker took first via an infield miscue in the seventh inning. A fielder's choice by Olson placed Ecker on third, and a passed ball allowed him to race home to give the Breammen their winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning with two out.

The Moose scored first as they came up with a run in the top of the third. Darrell Tuckey drew a pass, Phil Little popped out and Richie Noble grounded out, allowing Tuckey to reach second. Dick Becker then singled scoring Tuckey from second.

The Garagemen knotted the count in the bottom of the fourth when Nichols led off with a triple. An infield single enabled Bill Swope to reach first while Nichols was held on third. On a passed ball, Swope went to second and Nichols attempted to score, but was out as Jack Sprecher retrieved the ball in time to toss to Greg Maitland who came in to cover the plate. Two plays later another catcher, Marty Olson, uncorked a long double to left which drove in Swope with the tying run.

Moose Threaten
The Moose threatened in the top of the sixth when Greg Maitland led off with a triple to left, with two out, but the next man up went down swinging. In the seventh Sprecher walked, stole second and third, but Jim McClear bore down and fanned the remaining three men.

Bill Swope carried the big bat for the Yankees as he connected for a pair of hits. The Moose team collected only four scattered hits off pitchers Fissel and McClear.

The two relief hurlers received the decisions. Maitland, who pitched the regulation six, struck out seven and gave up only five hits. He was relieved by Darrell Tuckey in the seventh who is charged with the loss. Wayne Fissel started on the mound for the Yanks. He gave up one pass and struck out nine. Little Jim McClear, who also came in in relief in the seventh, receives the win.

A pair of triples accounted for the Lunchmen's last two runs. In the fifth, Montfort belted a long three-bagger to right-center and came all the way in as the right fielder bobbled the ball. In the sixth, Bartholomew led off with a triple to center and home on the next play when "Chuck" Kitzmiller grounded out.

Brennan and Sherman were the top hitters for the victors as they each collected a pair of safeties including Sherman's double, home run and two r.b.s. Fred Furney connected for the same number of hits to top the losers' batting order.

Tawney receives his second win on the mound, while Bartholomew is charged with his second loss.

SP Game Off When Umps Fail To Show

When umpires were missing at Hunterstown Tuesday evening, Tannetown and Hunterstown were unable to play their South Penn Baseball League game to make up a previously postponed game.

Norbert Felix, Hanover, league president, said today a special meeting will be held Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St., when the board of arbiters will rule on the disposition of the game.

FAILED TO SHOW, IS SUSPENDED

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Boxer Johnny Lombardo was suspended for life by the Toledo Boxing Commission yesterday because he failed to show up for a weigh-in for a welterweight bout with Pat Lowry.

The Mount Carmel, Pa., fighter was finally located in Detroit where he reportedly spent Monday night with friends. Lombardo made no explanation of his trip and offered to return to Toledo in time for the fight. But promoter Sid Goldberg had already announced the cancellation.

Sam Youngheart, chairman of the commission, said he would ask the National Boxing Assn. and major boxing commissions throughout the nation to ban Lombardo until he reimburses the expenses incurred here. Goldberg estimated the expenses at $2,000.

An estimated $3,000 in advance sales for the 10-rounder scheduled for last night will be refunded, the promoter said.

Lombardo and his trainer, Joe Gross, arrived here Saturday for workouts. When Lombardo failed to show up for the 1 p.m. weigh-in, his manager, Connie Noonan, got on the phone and located him in Detroit.

9-DAY PROBE OF FAKE FIGHT ENDS WITH QUESTIONS NOT ANSWERED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission has wound up its probe of the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos fight. And the big question is—now what?

The end came last Tuesday after a seven-hour session on the ninth day of a probe that extended over four weeks.

The strange fight with its strange ending last May 6 had serious repercussions in the boxing world of Pennsylvania. Among other results, Governor George M. Leader suspended all state boxing for 90 days.

Sticks To Orange Story
Mederos was awarded a technical knockout when Johnson collapsed after the second round. Doctors later said Johnson was "drugged" by a barbiturate. The probe never did develop who drugged Johnson, or how the drug was administered.

Johnson, the top ranking lightweight contender, said he did not know how, or if, he had been drugged. He stuck to his story that an orange given him by a stranger tasted bitter and was probably the cause of his illness.

Johnson also testified that Louis Saccaroma of Miami, one of Mederos' three managers, was in his dressing room shortly before the fight. Saccaroma, identified by Pennsylvania police as a former narcotics convict, denied Johnson's statement, saying he was at his home the night of the bout.

Commissioner Is Witness
The commission charged Johnson, matchmaker Pete Moran and four other persons with participating in a "sham and collusive" contest for failing to report that Johnson was ill before the fight.

Attorneys for the respondents were given until June 21 to file briefs and June 24 was set as the date for oral arguments before the commission here. This came after the respective counsel asked for dismissal on grounds the charges were not substantiated.

In a surprise move near the close of the hearing, Commissioner Alfred M. Klein temporarily stepped out of his role as an investigator to appear as a witness.

Rules Were Broken
The demand for Klein to take the stand was made by Thomas J. Burke, attorney for Tommy Loughrey, Johnson's manager. Burke contended Klein had "prejudged" the case.

Under questioning, Klein admitted that a number of unauthorized persons were permitted to enter Johnson's dressing room the night of the fight, which was conducted under the jurisdiction of Klein, despite commission rules to the contrary.

Another witness, boxing promoter Herman Taylor, angrily defended his reputation in the business. He said he had a "wonderful reputation" as a fight promoter for 51 years and said he never "put on fake fights."

The implication that the Johnson-Mederos fight was "faked" particularly infuriated him, Taylor said. But the commission told Taylor directly that its investigation showed the promoter was not involved in any wrongdoing.

Moran Arrested
The Philadelphia promoter's testimony yesterday dealt mainly with his financial agreements with Moran, who also is accused by the commission of being Johnson's real manager. The commission contends Tommy Loughrey only fronted for Moran. Johnson has testified he knew Loughrey as his only manager.

Moran is under arrest, charged with lying while testifying at a committee hearing last week.

And when called to the witness stand yesterday, Moran declined to answer many questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

Taylor told the commission the "main thing" he wants to know is "what happened to Harold Johnson."

Klein told Taylor that is exactly what he wants to know, too.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Burglars lugged a 300-pound drug store safe into a car and took it to a secluded spot in the woods. There they found it was empty. They found, also, it hadn't been locked in the first place.

Surgery Helps Eddie Mathews

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Eddie Mathews has found a new cure for a batting slump — have your appendix removed.

Since rejoining the Braves after an appendectomy May 18, the 23-year-old third baseman has returned to the slugging form that made him one of the major league's most feared hitters in 1952 and 1954.

Before his operation, he was hitting below .240 and had just six home runs.

Since returning May 30 as a pinch hitter, he has clouted five home runs in six games and has driven in 10 runs while raising his average to .280. Monday night his first-inning two-run homer sent the Braves off in front in a 5-2 win over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Heading the field of celebrities will be Lee Petty 1954 NASCAR Grand National champion, in a 1955 Chrysler 300; Buck Baker, 1953 NASCAR Grand National titleholder, in a 1955 Buick; Tim Flock, 1951-52 Grand National champ, in a Chrysler 300; Dick Rathman who won the famed Indianapolis Memorial 500 in 1952 and many other nationally known auto racing drivers. These specialists will be appearing in this area for the first time in their history.

Activity starts Friday night with time trials at 6 p.m. Qualifying spins for positions in the 200-lap feature classic will then occupy the pilots from 6 until 8 p.m. with the big race getting underway shortly thereafter.

This event is a regular sanctioned top in the 1955 schedule of NASCAR's Grand National championship circuit. Purse money of more than $4,000 has been guaranteed the entrants and points in the 1955 Grand National point standings race will be awarded to each position finish in the "two hundred."

Petty leads the Grand National circuit with 2,628 points, Baker is second at 2,390; Tim Flock third, 2,178, followed by Rathman, 1,862; Junior Johnson, 1,650; Herb Thomas, 1,522; Jim Paschal, 1,326; Ed Skinner, 1,254; Jim Lewallen, 1,238, and Fonty Flock (Tim's brother), 1,190.

MAKE PLANS FOR SCOUT TREK AND HAINES SAFARI

Plans for the annual fall "trek" and participation in the Haines Safari this weekend were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District Committee in the office of the chairman, Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, Baltimore St.

Approximately 130 Boy Scouts and more than 100 Cubs from the Black Walnut District are expected to participate with more than 4,000 Scouts and Explorers from the York-Adams Scout Council area in the Haines Safari Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Chairman Hartman, Assistant District Commissioner Oliver Pifer, and D. Walker Woods were among those who reported on the local plans. Pifer said that he and Dr. F. T. Watson laid out a site 150 feet long and 90 feet deep at the Haines ranch east of York, Sunday, as the spot where the Black Walnut Scouts will camp.

Erect Gateway
Scouts may set up their tents and begin the camp Wednesday night if they wish, he reported. Dr. Watson will be present at that time.

Walker said a large gateway for the Black Walnut District has been constructed. Pillars are made up of panels listing the various units of the district. Atop the gateway is a replica of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial.

Roberts Zeigler, it was reported, will take the Explorer band to the safari Thursday afternoon. During the three day camp, 156 Cub Scouts and Explorer units will compete for wall plaques and ribbons by presenting demonstrations of scouting skills. A total of 2,400 Scouts and Explorers and 1,800 Cubs are expected to attend. The Cubs will be present on Friday only and will not camp overnight. Parents and friends may visit Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday.

To Charge Youth After Bus Crash

Occupants of a school bus and an automobile escaped injury Monday afternoon in a rear end collision on the Pine Grove Furnace Rd., near Toland.

Clair L. Beam, Gardner, had stopped the bus to let three school children alight when the vehicle was struck by the car driven by Freddie Lee Simon, 17, Carlisle, police reported. The front of the car was moderately damaged.

Police said Simon will be charged with reckless driving.

told the story of the white girl who was abducted, later married an Indian chief and died in an Indian village in New York where she is buried. The statue was erected in 1923 by the late Fr. Will Whalen, former rector at St. Ignatius.

Over 400 Members Now
Fr. Yeager said his church, which was referred to in the early days as "the Mountain Church" and later as "the old Jesuit Mission," was served by Jesuit priests on horseback from a cave at Chambersburg to Carlisle and Lancaster.

The first mass in the St. Ignatius parish was said in a farm home there about 1800 and the tower and sacristy were added in 1895 and the interior was renovated in 1932 but the original structure remains together with the original altar. He said there are "between 450 and 500 souls" in the parish now and the church is a constant tourist attraction as is the Jesuit statue.

The present rectory is the third, he said. The original was attached to the church and the second was destroyed by fire. The church property includes about 50 acres of land, he added.

The tour Tuesday evening, last gathering of the society until fall, was led by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, the society's program chairman.

show. In addition to the scout displays, a special display of "80 years ago" featuring a blacksmith shop, Indian village and Conestoga wagons and burros will be placed at the center of the safari area.

Friday night a talent show will be presented by the scouts. The Trek, tentatively scheduled for September 17 and 18, arranged by a committee including Crosby Hartzell, Lt. Col. Williams, Elmer Johnson, Doctor Watson and C. William Zhea, will be the Mt. Vernon, Arlington, Andrews Air Force base and other sites in Washington, D. C. The group will leave Gettysburg at 7 a.m. September 17 and return at 9 p.m. September 18.

2 Troops Miss Camp
Reservations for Camp Tuckahoe have been made by all but two troops in the district, according to a report at the meeting. Explorers were urged to make immediate reservations for the three council exploring events, a trip to Canada, to the Great Smokies and a week's visit at the Newcastle Air Force Base.

Dr. Watson was commended for his work in connection with the organization of Cub Pack 78 at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.

Chairman Hartman announced that the next meeting of the district committee will be held September 13. A meeting of the trek committee with unit representatives will be held the latter part of August.

The trustees voted at their meeting to apply for a federal housing loan for the erection of a new dormitory, which will enable the college to expand to a student enrollment of 600 when the present flood of high school students begins to enter college. Progress was reported on the solicitation of gifts for a new science building, construction of which will be begun in the next year.

Canner Athletic Program Covers Five Major Sports; Girls Win Loop Cage Title

Under the supervision of Director of Athletics Arthur M. Gordon, Biglerville High fielded competent teams in all of its interscholastic varsity sports, and added a new one — wrestling. Biglerville won two of its six wrestling meets during this first year of competition, under the guidance of William Krebs, a social studies teacher, and Gordon expressed his satisfaction at the outcome. "They were good meets," he said. "We hope to continue them."

Krebs was also pleased with the outcome and he opined that the team should improve next year. He particularly lauded the work of Ralph Mentzer, a 147-pound sophomore, who was undefeated until the district semi-finals, and George Flickinger, a 95-pound sophomore who also reached the district semi-finals, having lost only once before then. Two seniors were also outstanding: Don Himes, who lost only two matches at 165 pounds, both the same man whom he beat the third time, and Bill Shaffer, who posted a 2-and-4 record in the tough heavyweight class.

New All Around

Before the football season began, Coach William L. Coradetti called it "a new season in a new league, with a new coach and a new team." The new coach and team were badly trounced in their first two games, but came back to post a respectable 3-and-5 record for the year, to end up third in their new conference, the Laurel League Conference. The teams they defeated were Susquehannock, Dallastown and Kennard-Dale.

Individual standouts were few, but Cordetti, who also teaches English and social studies, singled out Tackles Bill Shaffer and Ken Pitzer, and Guard Bill Birgen-smith in the line, and Fullback Jim May as the most consistent ground gainer of the large number used. "It was a green team, and should improve with experience," the coach states, but admits that he'll miss seniors Shaffer, Birgen-smith, Halfback Dave Slay-baugh, Fullback Paul Little, and End Don Himes. Coradetti was aided in his coaching chores by physical education instructors, Clair W. Settle and Robert B. Garrett. Garrett also coached the junior varsity team, while Settle handled the junior high school footballers. An estimated 80 boys went out for the three teams, out of a total student body of 550.

Tie For Third

In basketball, Biglerville's "Canners" tied East Berlin for third place in the Adams County League. In the championship playoffs, Biglerville lost the opener to the eventual winner, Boiling Springs, but defeated New Oxford in the consolation tilt. Coached by science and mathematics teacher Richard Allison, the team posted an overall record of 11 wins and 13 losses. Allison fielded a starting team that usually consisted of Eugene Shaffer, Nevin Frantz, Ronald Group, Frank Cline, and Larry Hoke. Frantz wound up as high scorer and was named to the league's all-star team, while Group and Shaffer made honorable mention. Frantz, Cline, and reserve John Day will be lost to the team through graduation.

The lone championship won by a Biglerville team was the Adams County Girls Basketball title, which went to Mrs. Rheba Wentzel's proteges. They won the championship by edging Littlestown in the decisive final game of the season. With Miss Barbara Ann Hess aiding in the coaching, the team fielded a starting unit composed of Forwards Joan Geiselman, Shirley Peters, and Judy Shetter, and Guards Kay Sheats, Betty Zeigler, and Jean Guise. Miss Peters was high scorer.

Frank Soloski, industrial arts teacher, coached the jayvee basketballers, while Coradetti handled the junior high team. A total of 85 students participated in the program.

Cop Six Straight

In spring sports, Coach Allison's baseball team got off to a fast start, winning its first six games. Five of them were Adams County League tilts, placing them on top of that group. The track team, coached by Garrett and mathematics teacher Bruce Sheats, won two of its first three meets. Bob Roe won the 100-yard dash and Ronald Koozitz the quarter-mile run for Class B schools at the Shippensburg Invitational Track Meet. Mrs. Wentzel coaches the girls' softball team.

The cheerleaders, under the guidance of Miss Hess, are considered a positive asset for the "Canner" teams. The football cheerleaders were Joan Staub, Darby Chronister, Connie Sionaker, Joanne Wolf, Elaine Weaver, and Carolyn Roth. Leading the acclaim for the basketballers were Melinda Houser, Shirley Kessel, Doris Rose, Winnie Hinkle, Freda Warner, and Sondra Taylor.

While lacking organized cheering sections, the school's intramural program, directed by Mr. Garrett, also served as an outlet for sports competition and enthusiasm. The 12th grade boys and 12th grade girls each won the basketball championships in their divisions. In the junior high, Class 9-2 won for the boys, and Class 9-1 among the girls. Pick-up games in volleyball also occupied students during winter noon-hours.

TEACHERS HAVE 10-HOUR DAY, SURVEY SHOWS

Teachers work long hours and get "short" pay, according to a compilation made by the Upper Adams Joint School System.

The survey came about when Leslie V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams jointure noticed that not only he, but most of the teachers seemed to be around the school practically every night in connection with some school-connected activity.

The situation seemed to call for some kind of arrangement if the teachers were going to have any evenings to themselves. To set up the schedule, Stock asked them to fill in time sheets giving an accurate accounting of all the hours they spent in classes, and in other school connected activities.

Report Hours Worked

The 52 teachers reported varying hours worked, but it was found that the average "working day" for a teacher in the Upper Adams system is ten hours and thirty-six minutes in length and the average "hourly" pay, as figured from their regular salaries, averages a little less than 92 cents.

The lowest paid employee was one young teacher who received a salary of $2000 per year, but her 11-hour day brought her rate per hour down to a little over 55 cents. Highest paid, if figured on an hourly basis, was one administrative employee whose 14.04-hour day brought his hourly earnings to almost $1.40 cents per hour.

Three of the teachers received an average of between 60 and 70 cents per hour; eight were in the group receiving 70 to 80 cents an hour; 16 were in the 80 to 90 cent an hour class; 14 earned 90 cents an hour and ten were in the "high paid bracket," earning $1 or more per hour.

Rates Vary

The contract salary had little to do with the hourly rate. One faculty member who had a $3,650 per year salary actually was earning $1.02 per hour, while another teacher with a $3,100 per year salary, but who was able to have a little more time to herself, was found to be earning $1.14 per hour.

Thirty-five of the teachers, the report showed, worked ten hours a day or more at their job. Only 17 were able to get along with less than a ten-hour day. Only five were able to claim that they worked less than a nine-hour day. None could claim that they could complete their duties in less than an 8½-hour day. One averaged better than 13 hours a day, five worked better than 12 hours a day and 11 of the teachers put in between 11 and 12 hours a day.

Compare Wage Rates

The findings on the "hourly wage" paid to the Upper Adams teachers led to another study — just for comparisons. Forty school districts of comparable or better standing in the area were questioned to find how the pay of Upper Adams teachers compared to the salaries paid in other schools. The survey showed that some teachers are earning salaries lower than those paid for comparable duties at the Upper Adams schools. It also showed that many teachers make more than the Upper Adams faculty, although none appeared to be on the road to becoming independently wealthy.

The salaries of girls' physical education teachers in the various schools ranged from $2,400 to $4,290, with Biglerville at the bottom of the list. High School Industrial arts teachers ranged from $3,000 to $5,150 with Biglerville's teachers ranging about midway in the scale. Librarians earned from $1,800 to $4,320, with Biglerville again at about the median point on the scale. Vocal music teachers earned from $2,800 to $4,500, with Biglerville fairly low in the list.

Guidance advisers ranged from $2,700 to $6,200, with Biglerville on the lower end of the scale — but not at the bottom. Home economics teachers were worth from $2,800 to $4,375 (when they were also cafeteria managers) the report showed. Biglerville was fairly high on the list.

Mathematics teachers drew salaries ranging from $2,800 to $5,000, with Biglerville's math teachers both high and low on the list. Elementary principals earned from $3,700 to $7,000 and the Upper Adams group was clustered just below the median mark. Elementary teachers ranged from a low of $2,400 to a high of $5,400 and the Upper Adams group ranged from $2,800 to $3,950. Similarly for the other divisions of teachers, the salaries ranged from under $2,500 to slightly over $5,000, and Upper Adams teachers seemed mostly near the median, although some were below it, some fairly far above it.

HONORARY D.D. FOR REV. HEIGES

The Rev. Donald R. Heiges of Chicago, formerly of Biglerville and now executive secretary of the National Lutheran Council's Division of Student Service, received an honorary D.D. degree from Concordia College at the ELC school's annual commencement exercises on May 30 at Moorhead, Minn.

Dr. Heiges has served as head of the NLC division since 1950 and has, in this capacity, been responsible for providing pastoral care for Lutheran students in colleges and universities throughout the United States.

The NLC division also cooperates in a program of building student centers, develops an extensive literature and study program for students, acts as a consultant in the work of the Lutheran Student Association of America, and is active in various other aspects of student work.

Born in Biglerville, in 1910, Dr. Heiges became active in Lutheran student work in 1935, when he was appointed chaplain and director of freshman orientation and counseling at Gettysburg College where he had previously been instructor in philosophy.

He served as pastor to Lutheran students in Greater New York from 1944 to 1950 and, at the same time, adviser to Lutheran students at Columbia University. He also held the position of an associate Protestant Counselor at Columbia, 1946-1950, and served as executive director of the Lutheran Student Foundation of Greater New York, 1948-1950.

during the vacation months by all of the states. The local club has ordered large billboard posters, he reported, to be placed near the town. The club has also ordered chrome license plate holders bearing the safety message and has ordered smaller posters to be placed in various windows.

"There are only two things that will stop this carnage on our highways — 38,300 people of all ages were killed on the highways last year — one is education and the other is strict enforcement of the laws.

"You can educate people, if you keep reminding them of their duty to be safe drivers. Two years ago we started this 'slow down and live' campaign in seven states during the summer months, and it surprised all of how much it helped cut down the traffic toll. Last year 16 states joined in and the toll was cut even more. This year all 48 states are taking part at the request of President Eisenhower and I think that a great deal can be done to keep the period of relaxation and recreation just that and not a period of carnage and death.

Need Aroused Public

"But we can't cut down the highway toll unless we become as angry about it, as we did as a nation about the abandoned ice boxes. We must each accept our responsibility to see that the highways are safe.

"Under such circumstances education will play an important part. But there are still some people who simply cannot be educated. And for those there must be strict enforcement of the laws, with a great public opinion in back of that enforcement."

Turning to a number of Lutheran ministers attended the Central Pennsylvania Synod sessions here who were present for the Kiwanis meeting, Beshore urged them "to help talk up highway safety. We are asking all ministers to preach safety on the Sunday before July 4. If the ministers will, a great number of lives can be saved."

Ernest Krape, president of the club, presided at the meeting. William Menges, Burgess of Hanover, spoke briefly, paying tribute to Beshore. "He is one of those who know the terrors of polio, because he suffered from it, and he is one of those who know no handicaps because they do not let them stop them."

FOREST DEPT. PEST CONTROL BILL IN HOUSE

HARRISBURG (P) — The State Forests and Waters Department would be authorized to carry out pest control measures on private land without the owners consent in certain cases under new legislation before the house.

"A Pest Control Act" introduced on Monday by Reps. William F. Renwick (D-Elk) and Paul A. Stephens (D-Somerset) would permit the department to make surveys and if control measures are indicated "prescribe a proposed zone of infestation."

Any person interfering with department agents carrying out provisions of the act would be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each offense or a jail term of one day for each dollar of the fine.

Other new House bills would: Permit third class cities to levy a tax of 20 mills instead of 15 mills on the dollar for general revenue—James J. Jump (R-Luzerne).

Eliminate the 60-year-old retirement requirement for employees of third class cities—Jump.

Permit councils of third class cities to appropriate money for recreation facilities in place of imposing a special two mill tax—Jump.

Permit county employees outside Pittsburgh and Philadelphia to retire after 25 years of service even

Two Ask Probe Of Drinking, Smoking

HARRISBURG (P) — Two Republican women members of the House are seeking a legislative study of the use of tobacco and liquor by children.

Reps. Evelyn G. Henzel (Montgomery) and Ruth S. Donahue (Clinton) Monday introduced a resolution seeking to have the joint state government commission, research arm of the General Assembly, have such an investigation.

The proposal states that the use of alcoholic beverages and tobacco by minors "has attained such widespread proportions as to create a health and moral problem among the juvenile population in Pennsylvania."

HOW AUTO PACT INCREASES PAY

DETROIT (P) — The CIO United Auto Workers who said on Monday that its contract settlement with Ford Motor Co. was for the equivalent of 20 cents an hour increase per worker today released the following breakdown of how it arrived at the figure.

Prepared by Nat Weinberg, research director of the UAW the UAW breakdown listed:

1. The annual improvement factor—6.2 cents. This yearly raise compensates workers for increased efficiency obtained from men and machines.

2. The guaranteed annual wage principle, according to the union, or supplementary unemployment compensation, in the company's phrasing—5 cents

3. Increased pension benefits—4.5 cents.

4. Elimination of wage inequalities, including an 8-cent-an-hour increase for some skilled categories—1.3 cents.

5. Increased health insurance, including "substantial" benefits for workers—1.2 cents.

6. Triple-pay for holidays—0.8 of 1 cent.

7. Premium pay for shift work—0.8 of 1 cent.

8. Vacation allowance improvement—0.2 of 1 cent.

If these eight items are added up, the cost of the new agreement becomes exactly 20 cents for each man hour worked.

PROF. NATHAN GETS PASSPORT

WASHINGTON (P) — A 24-year effort by Prof. Otto Nathan of New York University to get permission to travel abroad ended successfully on Monday when the State Department, under court prodding, gave him a passport.

Dr. Nathan is executor of the late Albert Einstein's will, and he has said one reason he wants to go abroad now is to attend a scientific meeting in Switzerland next month to discuss publication of some Einstein manuscripts.

The U.S. Court of Appeals here ordered the State Department to give Nathan a hearing no later than Tuesday and, if it refused to grant him a passport, to specify its reasons.

Born In Germany
In announcing that the passport appeals board had approved a travel permit for Nathan, the State Department said it was adhering to its position the issuance of passports is a function "confined exclusively to the judgment of the secretary of state."

In New York, Nathan said his case shows "the importance of compelling the State Department to support its 'allegations' by evidence in open hearing."

"Since there was no such evidence," he said, "the department was unable to face the hearings ordered by the court of appeals, and preferred to issue the passport."

Nathan, a naturalized American, was born in Germany 61 years ago. He has denied ever having been a member of the Communist party in Germany—an allegation by an undisclosed source which the State Department said Nathan had not "adequately rebutted."

SEEK POWER TO DISAPPROVE OF OBSCENE FILMS

HARRISBURG (P) — The House Judiciary Committee has approved an administration proposal that would authorize the state Board of Censors to specifically disapprove films that are obscene or incite crimes of violence.

Under present law the board has only the power to grant a state seal of approval to movies. There is a question as to what it can do about films which are shown without its approval.

In addition, the changes approved yesterday by the committee and placed in position for final House action next week would define the phrase "incite to crimes of violence."

The definition is any film which has the dominant purpose or effect to suggest that the commission of criminal acts of violence is profitable, desirable or acceptable behavior.

The amendments to the 1915 censorship code also would make illegal the showing of a film advocating the use of narcotics or habit forming drugs.

None of the changes would apply to films pertaining to current events (newsreels). The bill is sponsored by Reps. Polaski (D-Erie) and Hamilton (D-Beaver).

Other measures winning committee approval yesterday would:

Have the Joint State Government Commission inquire into the tax problems of small businessmen.

Urge Congress to fix a minimum wage of $1.25 an hour and to extend coverage to all workers whose employment affects interstate commerce.

Fix penalties for the owner or keeper of a vicious dog who does not keep it confined when ordered to do so.

Authorize creation of a county-wide transit authority to unify transportation facilities upon approval of the voters.

Permit creation of municipal authorities for the collection, removal or disposal of refuse.

Fix maximum working hours of 8 a day and 40 a week for all policemen in counties, cities, boroughs and towns with five or more full time officers.

Approve the leasing of state forest land for up to 50 years for use by religious organizations.

Reading President Predicts Better Year For Railroad

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joseph A. Fisher, president of the Reading Company, told stockholders Tuesday that 1955 should be better than last year for the railroad thanks chiefly to operating economies and increased traffic in steel and coal.

For the first five months of this year, he reported at the annual meeting, net income will be approximately $4,141,000, an increase of $402,000 or 11 per cent over the same period in 1954.

Improved service and expanded facilities, he said, should continue to keep business at a higher level for the rest of the year.

"Situated as we are in the highly industrialized east," Fisher said, "we suffered a serious loss of traffic and earnings in 1954."

Decline In Steel

"There was an overall decline of 42 per cent in iron and steel production by the 11 companies which operate plants along our lines. There was a reduction in movements of bituminous coal, coke and other basic requirements of the steel industry. Our earnings from anthracite coal movements declined 20 per cent, due to mild weather and competition with other fuels.

"Several factors, one of which is the budget control of expenses in effect on the Reading for a number of years, tended to soften the effects of the decline and we carried down to net eight cents of our revenue dollar, after taxes and fixed charges, compared with nine cents in 1953.

"I am happy to report that the trend in steel and soft coal movements has been reversed and indications are that this traffic will be at a higher level this year."

"We serve some 7,000 business establishments in the rich industrial area in which we are located," he continued. "We have every confidence that that area will continue to grow and prosper. Already in 1955 a greater number of traffic producing industries have located on our line, which will result in substantial additional revenues."

"Peggy Back Service"

"To improve service and seek new business, the Reading inaugurated on Jan. 1, trailer-on-flat car service, commonly known as 'Peggy Back,' between Philadelphia-Camden and Chicago. . . . The service was extended to St. Louis on March 28, and on June 1 to St. Paul and Minneapolis and to several destinations in Wisconsin.

"We are now planning to expand the service to include the area bounded by Pottsville, Lebanon and Lancaster on the West and Fairless on the East, Allentown on the North and Wilmington, Del., on the South. We will continue to explore possibilities for further expansion.

"Another very important improvement now under way is the construction of a new five-mile low-grade line near Reading and a consolidation of yard facilities in that city."

Seashore Losses

In an era of great technological progress, Fisher said, "we are already using electronics in many ways to do a better job and are constantly seeking new applications."

Referring to the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines, which serves nearly all southern New Jersey, Fisher commented:

"Seashore Lines operations have never resulted in a profit, and in 1954, we were required to advance $1,594,300 to meet our proportion of the deficit. We believe this condition is improving since the advances in 1954 were the lowest in years. The Seashore Lines territory has good traffic potentials and should attract industries to locate there." The Reading company has one-third interest in the Seashore Lines.

TAYLOR DENIES JOHNSON BOUT "FAKE" CHARGE

By LEE LINDER
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Boxing promoter Herman Taylor told the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission Tuesday that he has never in his life "put on fake fights."

Taylor was a witness at the commission's investigation into the status of professional boxing in the Keystone state, in particular, the May 6 Harold Johnson-Julio-Mederos fight at the arena here, in which Johnson was found to be drugged.

The promoter who claims he has been in the business for 50 years—"my entire lifetime"—said he resented the implication of the commission's investigation, which charged that five persons, including Johnson, participated in a "sham and collusive" boxing match.

Hunt Promoter

Herman S. Levin, deputy state attorney general who is counsel for the three-man commission, told Taylor that "if we thought Mr. Taylor was involved in the Johnson-Mederos business, we would have named him a respondent. What occurred at this fight naturally hurt Mr. Taylor, because he was the promoter."

Commissioner Alfred Klein asked Taylor "do you know who drugged Johnson?"

"No," replied Taylor "I wish I knew."

Tie-Up With Moran

Before Taylor was summoned to the stand, his secretary-bookkeeper, Emily Delaney, testified that the promoter had paid Moran a total of $20,400 since 1950 for his help in the promotion of 41 boxing shows.

Moran, when he was a witness, had refused to tell how much Taylor paid him.

Taylor, questioned about his financial arrangements with Moran, said that he had no written contract with the matchmaker, and "paid him as much as I wanted, with no regular amounts."

Recalls Johnson Fight

Taylor, going back to the night of the Johnson-Mederos fight, said he hadn't seen Johnson enter the ring before the bout began, because he was in the box office. He said he entered the arena and took a seat in the rear shortly after the fight began and "I didn't notice anything unusual about Johnson."

He seemed OK to me."

He went on:

"I thought Johnson won the first round pretty easy, and I even thought he won the second round, even easier than the first. Then he fell down near the end of the round, and I don't think he was even hit. When he collapsed, I didn't know what was wrong with him."

Ford Stock Query Draws "No Comment"

DETROIT (AP)—One question left unanswered by the Ford auto labor settlement is whether Ford will go ahead with a plan to sell company stock to employees at a bargain price.

Ford had offered to let employees buy its stock at half price as part of a worker income security plan rejected by the CIO United Auto Workers Union.

John S. Bugas, Ford vice president for industrial relations, had "no comment" when asked if Ford

DULLES WARNS S. C. GRADS ON BIG FOUR TALK

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles expressed doubt Monday that the top level Big Four meeting by itself would relax international tensions.

"It will take more than words," Dulles said, "and more than one meeting, to create conditions which will justify relaxing the efforts which we have been making."

Dulles spoke out in an address before the graduating class of the University of South Carolina. The Big Four "summit" conference will bring together President Eisenhower and the premiers of Russia, Britain and France, perhaps beginning July 18. The United States has agreed to Geneva as the site.

Dulles said the meeting would "serve to identify the present causes of tension and set a course which may lead to eliminating threats to peace and freedom."

Soviet rulers, he noted, have described the conference as "designed to relax international tensions."

"But I am doubtful," he said, "about the 'relaxing' part of the Soviet formula."

Dulles said "hopes have tended to rise" because the heads of the four governments are planning to meet.

"I hope that that meeting will be useful," he said. "Surely the United States will do all in its power to make it so."

"But of one thing I am certain—that is that the meeting will not end the necessity for strong and vigorous national and international security policies and for national unity behind them."

The only prudent course to follow, the secretary said, is for the United States "for some time yet to live as a nation that is imperiled."

He added:

"I believe that the American people are sufficiently stout-of-heart not to want to be fooled. So long as there is peril, it is far safer, although not pleasant, to see the peril. Then, there is a better chance that it will be avoided."

The bulk of Dulles' address was intended to go ahead with the plan.

All Ford stock has been held so far by the Ford family and the Ford Foundation, a philanthropic trust, but the company said Ford stock will be offered for public sale some time in the near future.

Town Buzzes Over Martin-Lewis Split?

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Have Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis decided to split up their successful comedy act?

Film town buzzed with the question today as Lewis prepared to go East for the premiere of the team's latest opus — and Martin scheduled a trip to Hawaii with his wife.

It was said to be the first time the comic duo had failed to get together for an important opening. Martin, some said, is angling for his own TV show, while Lewis would like to go on a personal appearance tour and play more night clubs.

This is not the first Martin and Lewis feud, but one close friend said it looks like the last.

Lewis declined comment and Martin could not be reached.

SUPREME COURT DETOURS ISSUE IN PETERS CASE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is it constitutionally right and fair for the government to fire a federal employee as a security risk without letting him confront his accuser or even know who he is?

The Supreme Court had a chance to give a final answer Monday. But it took a detour. Someday it may face the question again. Meanwhile, the government can continue using secret informants in security cases.

Critics have condemned this practice. They argue a man whose job and future are at stake should be allowed to face and cross-examine his accuser. But the Justice Department says secret informants are sometimes necessary for national security.

Free To Fire

Under both Presidents Truman and Eisenhower government officials have been fired, whenever they wished, to fire a man on the basis of testimony from witnesses the man might never be allowed to see or know.

In May 1953, Dr. John P. Peters, senior professor of medicine at devoted to high praise for the State Department's foreign service officers and for congressional Democrats and Republicans for joining in what he called bipartisan foreign policy.

BILLY GRAHAM RAISES DOUBTS

By DAVE MASON

PARIS (AP)—Some Paris Protestant pastors wondered out loud at a meeting Tuesday about methods used by American evangelist Billy Graham, who is in the midst of a five-day crusade in the French capital.

While unanimously expressing gratitude that Graham had accepted their invitation to preach in Paris, they voiced misgivings about his practice of summoning members of his revival congregations to "come forward and make decisions for Christ."

One pastor said he didn't think all those who had come forward were actually making decisions and said that to say so might be a "little dishonest."

Another said Graham's practice of having his counselors walk to the front of the meeting place with the others gave a false impression as to the number making the decisions.

A third Paris minister said he was confused and surprised about the response and was stupefied to see the number of people who had come forward.

Graham, who has often heard such doubts expressed elsewhere told a meeting of the pastors it was one of the keystones of evangelism to "preach to a decision."

Graham said the nearly 1,000 Parisians who have come forward at his meeting the past two nights may not have been thoroughly "won over to Christ."

"It might take two years," he said, "Do not expect too much from them at first. It is most important that we follow them up."

"I believe that a spiritual fire could sweep France. This city could have a great spiritual revival. If it did it could change the world, but it will take prayer on your part."

Yale University, was fired as a part-time consultant to the U. S. Public Health Service. He had denied he was a Communist and officials of his own agency had previously cleared him.

The Loyalty Review Board reopened his case and decided he ought to be out of the government on grounds of questionable loyalty. But even the review board didn't know who some of his accusers were.

He appealed to the federal courts, raising the question of constitutionality in the use of secret witnesses. Yesterday the high court said it wouldn't give a ruling on a constitutional question, including Peters', unless it had to. It found another point on which to decide Peters' case.

It said the Loyalty Review Board had no right to dig into his case after officials in his own agency had cleared him.

STATE PLANNING BOARD OPERATES AS INDEPENDENT

HARRISBURG — The state Planning Board operated today once again as an independent agency as the governor's first reorganization plan became law.

The House put it into effect yesterday by adopting, 153-33, a resolution approving removal of the board from the Commerce Department. The change is designed to revitalize the agency which is responsible for long range state thinking.

Submitted to the Legislature on May 11, the switch received unanimous Senate approval 12 days later. Under the 1953 Reorganization Act the plan needed only approval by both houses to become law.

Meanwhile, in the Senate, committee approval was given to a House-passed measure to create a 12-member government reorganization commission. The proposal is a companion bill to the original reorganization measure.

Is Revised
The commission bill was revised to give the governor all of the appointments instead of dividing them with the speaker of the House and the president pro tempore of the Senate.

The House acted after two members spoke against the plan.

Rep. Johnson (R-McKean), assistant GOP floor leader, argued that it doesn't save the state any money but actually increases costs; doesn't consolidate anything but makes two independent agencies out of one; does not eliminate overlapping functions; and fails to carry out any purposes of the reorganization law.

However, Johnson told the House some Republicans would vote for it "rather than be termed obstructionists." He repeated the Republican stand that procedures provided for by the bill are unconstitutional.

Like Governor's Bill
"The governor doesn't think this is any more constitutional than we do—he's introduced a bill to do the same thing as this plan," Johnson said.

Rep. Readinger, House Democratic leader, replied that "maybe we are not moving as fast as we would like to (on reorganization plans) but we are moving forward."

Rep. Auker (R-Blair) argued against the plan because "no one can show me where it'll save any money."

The board was created in 1934 by action of the governor. Two years later it was established by law as an independent administrative board. When the Commerce Department was created in 1939 the board was made a part of it.

3-Month Battle
The administration's reorganization bill, introduced as House Bill 1, became law April 7 after a three month battle. It was opposed in both houses by Republicans and only through a conference committee of both houses was a compromise worked out. It gives the governor broad power to rearrange agencies below department level, with approval of the Legislature.

Under this first plan the new board would have 15 members appointed by the governor who would serve four years, one less than present board members serve. They would receive no salary but would be repaid expenses. The state highways, commerce and forests and waters secretary would be members of the board ex officio.

All local and regional urban and housing redevelopment planning powers now held by the board would remain in the Commerce Department in order to leave the new board free to concentrate on industrial expansion.

Peach Week In Pa. Set For August 11-20

Pennsylvania peach growers have started arrangements for observance of Pennsylvania Peach Week, set for August 11 through 20, the state Department of Agriculture announced today.

The dates coincide with National Peach Week. Observance comes at a time when the early Pennsylvania peaches should be ready for marketing and sets the tempo for the coming of later varieties toward the end of August, extending through Labor Day.

Participating in activities for Pennsylvania Peach Week this year will be Miss Nancy Marsteller, Stewartstown R. D. York County, Pennsylvania, and National Peach Queen for 1954-55.

Miss Marsteller was winner of the first annual Pennsylvania peach dessert baking contest held during Peach Week last August, sponsored by the State Horticultural Association and the home economics extension service of the Pennsylvania State University. Plans are underway for another contest during 1955 Peach Week.
